Mission
The mission of Cornell Cooperative Extension 4-H Youth Development is to create supportive learning environments in which diverse youth and adults reach their fullest potential as capable, competent, and caring citizens.

Three Goals for 4-H Youth Development
- To engage young people in the work of Cornell and the Land-grant University system.
- To teach knowledge and life skills which enhance quality of life.
- To create opportunities which promote positive youth development.

Content: Educational Priorities
- Science, Engineering and Technology
- Youth Community Action/Citizenship
- Healthy Living

Context: Focus on Positive Youth Development
- Independence
- Generosity
- Mastery
- Belonging

Impact: Life Skill Development
- Health and Physical Skills
- Citizenship Skills
- Vocational Skills
- Cognitive and Creative Skills

4-H Youth Development Delivery
- Organized Clubs
- Afterschool
- Camps
- School Enrichment

http://nys4h.cce.cornell.edu